

MOVIES IN THE PARK

The Bonner County History Museum, Pine Street Dental and Sandpoint Parks and Recreation present Movies in the Park, a free community event celebrating family fun under the stars in Lakeview Park, located at 611 S. Ella Avenue.

Join us on July 21 for Moana and 28 for The Sandlot, and August 18 for The Princess Bride and 25 for Trolls and enjoy movies shown outside on the big screen. Admission is free, and concessions will be available. Gates open at 6:30 to begin placing blankets and chairs, and feature films will begin shortly after sundown.

Sponsorship Opportunities

Because this is a free community event, the Museum is seeking sponsors to cover the cost of licensing for each movie.

All sponsorships include: Mention in all marketing and promotion of the series, listing on museum website and Facebook page, and in all internal marketing to our members and visitors.

- $100 All of the above, plus advertisement on presentation playing prior to the start of each movie (marketing value - $300+)
- $150 All of the above, plus space to hang a banner for your business at each movie (marketing value - $400+)
- $250 All of the above, plus host table to market your business at one movie. ($50 each additional movie). Logo in (1) 1/2 page Co-Op Roundup ad, on museum website, and special mention on Facebook event page. (marketing value - $500+)
